difficulty in getting a place. The body was stretch- figures on the back of his card. ed upon a rich bier under a canopy of velvet : the hands were crossed upon the bosom, and the dress eyes. 'Excuse me I don't see the amount.' was of white satin, with a head-dress of lace .-Around the bier the family were assembled; the manu. long taper; the relations-children, grandchil- Naroumoff. dren, and great-grandchildren-all in deep mourning. No one wept-tears would have been lookhad long been considered as no longer belonging first card.' to this world. A celebrated preacher pronounced 'Very well,' returned Hermann; 'but will you washer and ironer to hire for the year 1853, they the funeral oration. In a few simple and touch- meet my stake? Yes or no? ing words he described the death of the just, who groom of midnight.' When the service was over, in the regularity of the game, and to facilitate cal- a favor by liquidating their liability forthwith.— the canvass more energy or political ability. farewell of the deceased. After them, in long pro- money on your card.' cession, came all those invited to the ceremony .-age as the countess, who advanced, supported by two women. She was not strong enough to kneel, but tears fell from her eyes when she bent to kiss the hand of her mistress.

Hermann proceeded in his turn towards the bier. He knelt for a moment on the marble flag covered with branches of cypress. He then rose, turned. and, pale as death, ascended the steps of the bier, and bowed his head, when suddenly it seemed to him as if the dead countess looked at him with a derisive expression, and winked her eye. Her- folio, and handed them over to Hermann, who mann rose with a hasty movement, and fell back- pocketed his winnings, and left the table. Naroument Lisabeta Ivanovna fainted where she stood and then went home. in the body of the church. These accidents dis-prey to the greatest uneasiness. At the restau- Hermann showed a Seven! contrary to his custom he drank a great deal, in ski was evidently ill at ease; he counted outninethe hope of getting rid of thought; but the wine, ty-four thousand roubles, and gave them to Hera profound sleep.

prayer. These cards-Three, Seven and Ace- made such a mistake. With his eyes fixed on the will win for you one after the other; but you are fatal card, it seemed to him that the Queen of forbidden to play more than one card in four and twenty hours, and never to play again in the course twenty hours, and never to play again in the course recogniszed with horror a strange resemblance beof your life. I pardon you my death on condition tween the Queen of Spades and the Countess Anthat you marry my demoiselle de compagnie, Lista a fedotovna.

constantly present to his imagination. He was ine, and his agreeable manners, had gained him numerous friends, and attracted general consideration towards him. He came to St. Petersburg, and immediately all the nobility, old and young, flocked to his saloons. Hermann was taken there extremely attentive and polite. The guests were mode of regulating the size of the wheels by an index alinski stopped to allow the winners to double their stakes, to pay, to listen civilly to the remarks addressed to him, and more civilly still to reclaim the stakes which some of the losers were inadvertently abstracting. At length the deal was over, and Tchekalinski shuffled the cards, and prepared NEW HAMPSHIRE SENATOR.—The Hon. Charles for a new one.

new carcer. The church was full of people, and he had some 'There!' said Hermann, having written some

'How much?' said the banker, half closing his 'Forty-seven thousand roubles,' replied Her-servants in black caftans, with ribbons on their At these words all eyes were turned on the shoulders bearing armorial devices, and holding a young officer. 'He has lost his senses, thought

'Allow me to observe to you, sir,' said Tchekalinski, with the same eternal smile, 'that you play ed upon as an affectation. The countess was so rather high. No one here ever puts down more the Southern Standard. old, that her death could surprise no one, and she than two hundred and seventy five roubles on the

'carried her off in the midst of her cheerful and pi- friends, I can only deal to ready money. I am all the relations moved forward to take their last culations, I shall be obliged to you to put your The new year is at hand, and by the first of Hermann drew a note from his pocket-book, and Standard office owes no man a dime, Let our To our Union Democratic colleagues of the Senate and The servants of her household succeeded, and handed it over to Tchekalinski, who satisfied of its friends note this, and act accordingly. Money among them was an old housekeeper of the same value at a glance, placed it on Hermann's card. He then dealt. To the right hand a Ten was turned; to the left a THREE!

'I win !' said Hermann; showing his card. A murmur of astonishment spread amongst the layers. For an instant the bankers brows contracted, but his habitual smile immediately re-

'Shall I pay you?' he asked.

'If you please,' was the reply. Tchekalinski took some bank notes from his port-turbed the ceremony for a few moments; the as- linski's, and found him dealing as before. He friends comfortable. sistants whispered among each other; and one old went up to the table; the players made room for chamberlain, a near relation of the deceased, mur- him, and the banker smiled as he approached. He mured in the car of an Englishman who stood waited for the next deal, and then took a card, on shippers are pushing off their cotton to market-busi- and political friends, the settled and distinct conclunear him, that the young officer was a left-handed which he put down not only his original forty sev- ness is reviving, and we are looking forward to an ac- sions we have come to on our own parts, and our views son of the countess; to which the Englishman laconically replied, 'Ah.'

During the whole of the day Hermann was a

which all democrats ought to the night before. Tehekalinski dealt: a Knave was turned up on the right, a Seven on the left.—

which all democrats ought to tive business season. We hope our friends will retive business season. We hope our friends will remember that the printer should be paid as well as the rat, where he was in the habit of dining alone, There was a general exclamation. Tchekalin-preoccupied. He went home early, threw himself, On the following day he returned at the accus- B. will suffer his name to go before the Convention or have been, a unit. dressed as he was, on his bed, and fell at once into tomed hour. Every one was on the tiptoe of ex- not. a profound sleep.

If you and other Union Democrats have already During the whole of the day Hermann was a was turned up on the right, a Seven on the left .-

When he awoke it was night, or rather morning, and the moon shone into his room. He looked at his watch, and saw that it wanted a quarter to three. He no longer felt wanted a quarter to three. He no longer felt wanted and many was the objects of everybody's attention.

The attention of the reader will be arrested by concerned, we intend to act accordingly, that Union of the expiration of the concerned, we intend to act accordingly, that Union of the many worship, cillors left their whist to witness play of such unustrated their recognize any difference or distinction among them, said the worship of the correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. He correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. He no longer felt wanted a quarter to three. He no longer felt wanted a quarter to three. He no longer felt wanted a quarter to the not longer felt wanted and the moon should all join in the movement of the correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. Kinyon, of Tishamingo county. We are much into the correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. Kinyon, of Tishamingo county. We are much into the correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. Kinyon, of Tishamingo county. We are much into the correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. Kinyon, of Tishamingo county. We are much into the correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. Kinyon, of Tishamingo county. We are much into the correspondence to the correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. Kinyon of Tishamingo county. We are much into the correspondence between Gov. Foote and B. N. Kinyon of Tishamingo county. We are much the correspondence to the correspondence of the corresponde pectation; even the old generals and privy-coun-

John Sitton, of Columbus, Mississippi, has taken always repeating to himself, 'Three—Seven— measures to secure a patent for the above. This maplains a point made by Mr. Lattimore against Mr. est and conscientious convictions of duty—that if er-Ace.' In every phase of his daily avocations chine, which the inventor denominates the "Wheel- Brown. these three numbers were mingled. He enter-tained no doubt that by their instrumentality he should make his fortune, but how was he to turn should make his fortune, but how was he to turn to account a secret which he had bought so dearly?

In the spokes, and also holing the felloes. An important improvement is in the use of two circular plates, one lying on the other, and capable of Parties," we have become thoroughly convinced that to which we have just alluded; and to put far from us. He thought of asking for leave of abscence to travel, in the expectation that in Paris perhaps he might discover some gaming table where he could realize his expectations. Accident relieved him from his embarrassment.

There was at that time at Moscow a company of rich gamblers, the president of which was a celebrated man named. Tehekalinski, who had passed all his life in play, and amassed an enormous fortune. His magnificent house, his excellent cuits in play, and amassed an enormous fortune. His magnificent house, his excellent cuits in the state general consideration of the expectation of the complete and honorable re-union of the democratic party. And we will add, that such being the satisfactory to every man who desires the success of the country. The New-York for the when the tensor of the complete and honorable re-union of the democratic party. And we will add, that such being the satisfactory to every man who desires the success of the country. The New-York fort the series for a time to have prostrated the cause of Republicanism, has greatly stimulated emigration to this satisfactory to every man who desires the success of the purples, statisfactory to every man who desires the success of the country. The New-York forth the country. The New-York forth the country of members, we analt of purples, and honorable re-union of the democratic party. And we will add, that such being the satisfactory to every man who desires the success of the satisfactory to every man who desires the success of the country. The New-York forth the country. The New-York forth the country of members, we analt from us, and honorable re-union of the democratic party. And we will add, that such being the satisfactory to every man who desires the success of the curting that would prevent or impede, a complete and honorable re-union of the democratic party. And we will add, that such being the curting that would prevent or impede, a complete and honorable re-union of the democratic party. And we will add, that such being the curting t flocked to his saloons. Hermann was taken there by Naroumoff.

Hermann was taken there ment for holding the latter, and is so contrived that On entering Tchekalinski's hotel, they passed the bench need not be shifted when the end of the fellow is to be bored, but merely a movable pin. In addition to all these improvements there is a neat

Will you allow me to choose a card ?' said Her- tor by the Legislature of New Hampshire for the mann, stretching out has hand over a stout man, ensuing four years, in place of John P. Hale.

The Southern Standard.

W. D. CHAPMAN | Publishers and Proprietors.

A cricke TEN—The powers not delegated to the United 5 lates by the constitution, nor prohibeted, by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.—Federal Constitution.

COLUMBUS:

subscriptions, and receipt for money for the same, for If any of our friends have a good Cook, can find a good home and fair wages for her, by next month, we desire to have it to say, that the can be sent to us through the mail, at our risk.

Preaching. Dr. Brown will, by divine permission, deliver an address on Christmas morning at 11 o'clock, on the Birth of Christ and the influence of his teachings upon the world. And on Sunday morning at II o'clock, on the witness of the spirit.

The Sallie Spann, a new steamer, is up for the Aberdeen trade; she is a substantial boat, entirely new, comfortably fitted up for passengers, and un- have ventured to address you. Being distant from you, wards on the pavement, from whence he was quick- moff could not recover from his surprise. Her- der the command of experienced and careful officers -- we are compelled either to remain silent, or to comly raised by the bystanders. At the same mo- mann stayed only to drink a glass of lemonade, We commend Sallie to the shippers up the river, and municate with you in the mode we have adopted. And to travellers hereabouts we simply say that Jo Good- as there is nothing in the propositions we here make, The next evening Hermann returned to Tchekain 112 and found him dealing as before Ha the signature of "A re-union Democrat," recommends spect and esteem. If not, we have thought that the endar, containing a variety of important information ed," the same glorious banner of equal rights.

Editor of the Standard:—Dear Sir; I was not a little surprised at a communication in the Standard of should be faithfully kept and executed.

Congressional Candidates.

who will make no country the size of the wheels by an index failure to extend their preseribed powers, or the State and the authorities are forced, by this failure to extend their preseribed powers, or the State will be without its full Congressional strength allowed on sofas, eating ices, or smoking long Turkish pipes. In the principal saloon, at a long table properly fixed.—Scientific American.

60. Foote has appointed B. N. Kixvox, Beq., of Thishoringo country. United States Senator, in the six of the will be without its full Congressional strength allowed by the apportionment act of 1851. Our population gives us five members of Congress, while the State is an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago. White are considered to the countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of ago, with a fine countenance and hair as white as an of about sixty years of a ground white the fine and the foot of the about sixty with a failure to extend their preseribed powers, or shoking long with the will be written the failure to extend their preseribed powers, or the State will be written the failure to extend their prese them Ripley folks hair that curls, it being evident that his cranium would not afford a supply for all.

The last Carrollton, Miss. Flag, received, is printed on a half shaet, and the 'cditor's apology for it is that the foreman had just "married a wife and the form was all pied."

NEW HAMPSHIRE SENATOR.—The Hon. Charles G. Atherton has been chosen United States Senator by the Legislature of New Hampshire for the ensuing four years, in place of John P.—Hale.

Had ate. It will not be good policy to throw the selection of each district should in of the five candidates for Congress before a State desirable, democrats shall not "keep the word of promise of the democracy and smelt the pipe of oblivion of the five candidates for Congress before a State is of the democracy and smelt the pipe of oblivion of the five candidates for Congress before a State in on of the five candidates for Congress before a State in on of the five candidates for Congress before a State in on of the five candidates for Congress before a State in on of the five candidates for Congress before a State in on of the five candidates for Congress before a State in on of the five candidates for Congress before a State in on the part of the hope."

We believe also that there is the same disposition of the Punical English, democrats to the hope. We believe also that there is the same disposition of the Punical English, democrats to the hope. We believe also that there is the same disposition of the Punical English, democrats to the hope. We believe also that there is the same disposition of the Punical English of fraternize with us, but to meet around the council for of the democracy and smell in the candidates for the hope. We believe also that there is the same disposition of the Punical English of the Union of the democrats, and the council fire of the democratic with us, but to meet around the council for the five candidates for the bouncing for the five candidates for Congress before a State Vernancial English of the Congress before a State Ver candidate for Congress for the State at large. This course we believe will be followed, and it is presumed tions of both divisions, why should brethren of the instance of a large number of friends in the counties ow nearly the whole Union ! of Marshall, Tippah, Lafayette, Tishamingo, Itawamba, Pontotoc, Calboun, Chickasaw, Yallobusha, Carba, Pontotoc, Calhoun, Chickasaw, Yallobusha, Carroll, Choctaw and Monroe, he has permitted his name gain preparing to enforce those principles which, howgain preparing to enforce those principles which, how-Saturday Morning, Dec. 25, 1852.

[C] H. P. Douthit, is authorized to receive new ubscriptions, and receipt for money for the same, for he Southern Standard.

[C] H. P. Douthit, is authorized to receive new ubscriptions, and receipt for money for the same, for he Southern Standard.

[C] H. P. Douthit, is authorized to receive new ubscriptions, and receipt for money for the same, for he Southern Standard.

[C] H. P. Douthit, is authorized to receive new ubscriptions, and receipt for money for the same, for he Southern Standard.

[C] H. P. Douthit, is authorized to receive new ubscriptions, and receipt for money for the same, for he Southern Standard.

[C] H. P. Douthit, is authorized to receive new ubscriptions, and receipt for money for the same, for he same, fo worthy gentleman, as a candidate for that office.

Davis—he is well and favorably known in this section opposition to the administration of Gen. Pierce." Tchekalinski bowed his acceptance, observing, applying at this office. Payments to suit the ownbad passed a long life in edifying preparations for a Christian end. 'The angel of death,' he said, a Christian end. 'The angel of death,' he said, a Christian end. 'The angel of death,' he said, a Christian end. 'The angel of death,' he said, a compared the death of the just, who has a compared, observing, however, I merely wished you to know that no appoint the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for democrats to open the state, as a gendeman, and as a man of very time for Those who are indebted to this office for personal popularity to the ticket, nor can the choice and united effort, to support the administration of that ous meditations, and in the expectation of the brideconvinced that your word is as good as gold; but advertising, job-work or subscription, will confer of the Convention fall upon one who will carry into great and good man, whom nearly the whole nation of the bridegreat and good man, whom nearly the whole nation of the provided that your word is as good as gold; but advertising, job-work or subscription, will confer of the Convention fall upon one who will carry into

House of Representatives: Messers. C. F. Hemingway, of the Senate; and W. S. Patton, M. P. Jones, Peter H. Cole, S. B. Pierce, Erastus Huntley, John Seal, P. W. Hemphill, J. S. Johnson, Jefferson Wilson, J. A. Sullivan, Christopher Deavors, Robert Phrophet, T. H. Wood, H. A. Cook, J. D. Barker, Geor Tankersly, Jas. Box, I. N. Selser, Henry C. Adams and Christopher Gillespie, of the House of Represen-

It having been the good fortune of the undersigned It having been the good fortune of the undersigned to act in concert with you, in reference to those great questions which lately agitated the country, and dividual for the office of United States Senator. We dividual for the office of United States Senator. We must say, however, that we have no fears of such a result. We have every confidence that the convention which still continue to act together, we have ventured to address you. Being distant from you, have ventured to address you. Being distant from you, we have addressed you through the public journals of the country. We state to you, with that frankness which should always be observed between personal come to such conclusions as are herein stated, we shall congratulate ourselves that we are so fortunate as to 1 writer in the last Columbus Democrat, over coincide in opinion with men whom we so highly rereasonings and reflections herein contained, might have gates thereto, who will do justice to all, and who will To His Excellency H. S. Foole. on the contrary, excited his imagination, and added new activity to the ideas with which he was prescribed. He went home early three himself.

Capt. Wm. Barksdale, of this city, as a candidate for democratic unity. Let us allow nothing in the past to dampen our hopes or weaken our trust in the past to dampen our hopes or weaken ing should at once re-assert their wonted sway—and that democrats, of whatever distinctive name or opinof your life. I pardon you my death on condition that you marry my demoiselle de compagnie, Lishabeta Ivanovna.'

After a contest so bitter as that which the State a communication in the Semdard of passed through last year—in which it seemed that the With these words she moved towards the door, and disappeared, shuffling in her slippears, as she figure in white in the street, which stopped and gazed for a moment through the window.

He remained for some time completely stupfield, the then rose, and went into the antechamber,—the then rose, and went into the antechamber.—The hand at first imagined, was drunk, and asleep on the floor. He had some differences, drunk, and asleep on the floor. He had some differences that which the State down state government, county matters &c. After a contest so bitter as that which the State that which the State down in the State, together with other matters are to be found in the almanae, masking it a useful little surprised at a communication in the Semdard of these the door of the state, to with my state time that the Courts are held through last year—in which it seemed that the the thin that the Courts are held through last year—in which it seemed that the dealth the signature of w. M. Brown section of the state, together with other matters are to be found in the almanae, masking it a useful little work of remained of some were brokenully. It cannot be doubted that all who were pominently and who were commined to remained sold when all, whose were wise their differences. Select distributes the grate in white in the Attion's Counsels during the street.

After a contest so bitter as that which the State that the left the thi rors were committed, those errors were on the right side—and that what was done, or proposed to be done, was "all in honor and naught in malice"-we can say more, which our clerk inadvertantly neglected to do,for ourselves, and we believe that we can say the same PUB. STANDARD. er, that their hearts are deeply imbued with those glo-rious, and time-honored, and now triumphant principles which all alike profess?

The Legislature at the late session failed to re-dis-who will make no effort to forget the past, and will trict the State, and the authorities are forced, by this allow the bitterness of the past to influence their fu-

Such being the mutual wishes and the mutual intensame political faith, be kept longer asunder! Will same political faith, be kept longer asunder! Will be that which prudence and sound discretion dictive not all hereafter, with returning affection for each they not all hereafter. to be that which prudence and sound discretion dictates.

Col. R. Davis, of Monroe county, we perceive has been mentioned by several of our cotemporaries, as a candidate before the Convention for the State at large on the Congressional ticket. We understand, at the on the Congressional ticket. We understand, at the counties of friends in the counties of meaning the counties of the principles which, throughter they not all hereafter, with returning affection for each they not all hereafter, with returning affection for the state of the first the seconds of the state of the state of the first the seconds of the state of the state of the state of th present the name of Col. Davis, or that of some other scattered and torn, again forming in battle array, and at a very early period, that the Executive rectifying for the onset ! Do we not hear their watch-It is needless for us to say a word in regard to Col. word ringing in our ears, of "determined, unflinching cancy which had not at the period of sach We ask then, and we ask with emphasis, is this a pointment made before the 4th day of Man has surrounded with its confidence. Let us hasten to vice, during the special session of the & set our house in order, by obliterating the lines that which, according to usage, will commence on a have lately divided us. Let us remember that the next 4th of March. All that perhaps can be no mantle of authority will soon fall upon that national done, is to see that the seat in the Senate wh democracy, of which democrats of Mississippi have democracy upon whom will devolve the immense task of restoring the Ship of State to the true republicant task—of renovating and reforming the internal adtack—of renovating and reforming the internal adtack. ministration—and of completing that national conpices, would never have been so much disturbed. We know that there are some who hesitate in re- I cannot permit the occasion to pass without gard to going into the proposed convention, because formal avowal of the gratitude which I have be the duties usually performed by such bodies. And both personally and politically; and I assure to when it is recollected that the senatorial election has that it is with peculiar satisfaction, that I so been referred to the people, and that many distinguish- this opportunity of making known to you, in the ed sons of Mississippi aspire to that station who will unequivocal manner, the favorable estimates desire to press their claims for the office, even till the which I hold your character and public series election itself by the next Legislature-we cannot be- as a tried and true Democrat-and more especia lieve that such apprehensions are well founded. Let no democrat, then, by reason of such fears, or any fears of unjust or ungenerous dealing, withhold his hand from the great work of perfecting the re-union of the Democratic party, or prevent his voice from swell-sailment to which, for several years, it was the ing the proud notes of exultation that will assuredly fortune to be subjected. arise, when that great event is consummated. In conclusion, we would respectfully arge, that we should all, Union Democrats and States Rights Democrats, join in organizing a regular old-fashioned Democratic Convention. Let us appoint such men as dele-Our opinion is, and as far as we are individually concerned, we intend to act accordingly, that Union States Rights Democrats, go up to that convention as occasioned in the Scienterial representation in Contents. three. He no longer felt any inclination to sleep, so he are nuclear three parts of the old counters.

At that moment some body in the street came under t

Jackson, December 17, 1852.

His servant, as he had at first imagined, was drunk, and asleep on the floor. He had some difficulty in awaking him; and when he succeeded could not get from him the slightest explanation.—The door of the antechamber was locked. Hermann immediately returned to his chamber, and wrote down all the circumstances of his vision.

From that time forward one idea alone took pos
To had a first imagined, was he had at first imagined, was hereful to head once more find a home with a "lineady discussion" with me, of those very "propositions and true democratic particular, that it well do the citizens of Columbus regular, who will once more revive, and once more find a home with a "lineady discussion" with me, of those very "propositions and true democratic particular, a "lineady discussion" with me, of the attendance of his me, that it well to the ditruction, and true democratic particular, who will once more revive, and once mor revive, and once mor revive, and once mor revive, and once mor true democratic particular, who will once mor evive, and o our friend Lattimore, for the non-appearance of his better things, and to believe better things. Convincnote in our last issue. A note from the publisher, exwe both are known.

Respectfully &c., Respectfully &c., S. S. LATTIMORE.

*We were requested to send a paper to Mr, Latti-

Foreign Immigration.

vew-York,	from the	beginning of	the prese	nt vear
Months.	Ireland.		Others.	Tota
anuary,	6661	3426	1505	1159
ebruary,	2834	1378	1136	534
March,	13213	3816	4697	2172
April,	10914	11694	5485	1819
May,	12875	13939	6858	3347
une,	15876	22339	10010	4922
uly,	9193	12573	3087	2485
August,	11615	15652	7246	3451
Sept. 22d,	5483	7869	4908	1820
Total,	88664	92676	45626	22697
* *

Important Correspondence,

JACKSON, Nov. 26th 18th

pointment, actually arisen. Therefore, 10 cord which, as we believe, under full democratic aus- if you conclude to accept it, I will hereafter tramit a Commission to you accordingly,

Your friend and fellow Citizen. H. S. FOOTE

Jacinto, Dec. 6th, 1852.

DEAR Str.-Your communication of the 255 ult., tendering me the appointment of Unit

MORGAN McAFEE. up from all quarters and from both political pestiller. SHIELDS L. HUSSEY. ties, and was heard above the din of the still proclaiming acquiescence in the "Compremie" as a whole (though not satisfied with every par of the same,) upon the express confidence that > and sentiment of both the great political parties of the Confederacy, as demonstrated by the late Baltimore Conventions and may truly be said to be the sentiments of the people of the Nation. Nor was Tishemingo alone in the great work of > pacification but nobly was she seconded by the whole State, early in the memorable controvers tempt to follow the pathway lighted by the Constitution, Justice and Truth.

I have the honor to be yours &c. B. N. KINYOM

Foreign News.